CHURCH NEWS

In future editions of the TIMES-VIRGINIAN, we plan to run the regular church news the first Thursday in each month.

Each week the church news is the same and we feel that this space could be used for important events, such as revivals, church social functions, and the like.

It would be a good idea to clip out your church news if you are not positive of the activities for the month.

If you desire any corrections to the church news previously printed in this paper, please contact us and we will gladly make the necessary corrections. When turning in your church news, please include all activities for the month.

Makes 'Rubbing" Copy of Tombstone

Mr. John Diuguid of Baltimore, Md., was by this week to show us the "rubbing" copy of the tombstone he had made from his great-grandfather's grave. He is the great-grandson of the late Sampson Diuguid, founder of Diuguid Funeral Home in 1817 in Lynchburg. One of the oldest businesses in the country, Diuguid Funeral Home has been operated by people other than family since 1950 but has retained the same name for the business.

Mr. Diuguid used waxed crayon and masking tape and rubbed to get the "rubbing" copy of the tombstone. Sampson Diuguid was buried in Appomattox County on the present Floyd Coleman farm, originally built by the Patteson family.
